

Urs Eggenberger, Vice Director

Urs Eggenberger, from St. Gallen and Grabs (SG), graduated from the University of Applied Sciences of St. Gallen in 1990 as a business economist and has been a chartered financial analyst since 1996. He has more than 15 years of international experience in the financial sector. From 1992 to 1999, he worked for UBS in Zurich and New York in the areas of capital markets and structured finance. In 1999, he moved into industry and held executive positions in the areas of finance/ treasury and pension funds at Mathys Medizinal-technik and Synthes until 2007. Urs Eggenberger has been Head of the Federal Treasury Division since November 2007 and has been job-sharing with Daniel Wittwer since April 2015. In this function, Urs Eggenberger also represents the interests of the Federal Finance Administration on the Board of Directors of Compenswiss, on Publica's Investment Committee, and on the Administrative Commission and Investment Committee of the Decommissioning Fund and the Disposal Fund for Nuclear Installations. He is married and has a son and daughter.

