

Beat Blaser, Vice Director

Beat Blaser, from Langnau in the Emmental (BE), completed his business studies at the University of Bern with a lic. rer. pol. (equivalent to MSc.) in 1986. Later, he completed extra-occupational training to become a Swiss Certified Accountant/Controller. From 1986 to 1996, he gained professional experience in the areas of finance and controlling, IT, organisation and human resources at Ascom Group. From 1996 to 2005, Beat Blaser held various executive positions within Swisscom's finance division, ending as CFO and member of the Executive Board of Swisscom Enterprise Solutions AG. Since April 2005, he has been Deputy Director of the Finance and Accounting Division, which was in charge of the Confederation's New Accounting Model (NAM) project, among other things. Beat Blaser lives in Stettlen, a suburb of Bern.

